

KEYNOTE TALK 1

UNLEASHING BOLDNESS VIA THE TRANSFORMATION CYCLE

Best audience: Young professionals, newly promoted managers, women in transformation, people changing careers.

“How do the most successful organizations and entrepreneurs become the talk of the town?”

It all happens when the team works together towards a common goal. While this may seem obvious, it's important to also focus on strengthening the self-confidence of everyone in the team. If one team member is losing self-esteem, it can have a negative impact on the entire team. By dedicating time to building self-confidence in each team member and as a unit, we can find a solution. In this impactful keynote, Fabienne will address ways and activities to define and design a self-confident, value-driven group, all linked to the driving force of a purpose while also strengthening resilience.

The keynote will address the following crucial points:

1. The absolute importance of self-confidence as the foundation of all success and how to consistently build and maintain it throughout our lives.

2. Igniting a purposeful and transformative moment that will fuel inner energy and create powerful moments of change. This is not just about change; it's about the potential for personal growth and transformation that can inspire and fuel the journey.

3. Fostering strength and adaptability in all situations; confidence breeds resilience, and leadership is accountable for creating an environment where the team can cultivate growth, trust that they can catch each other, and reward and celebrate wins while analyzing the pitfalls.

KEYNOTE TALK 2

THE HUMAN FACTOR IN AN AI WORLD

Best audience: young professionals, leaders, managers, executive leaders.

The constantly evolving work environment and the growing use of AI demand that all four generations in the workforce be agile and adaptive to remain relevant. While AI will assume tasks previously carried out by humans, it will also empower humans to concentrate on activities requiring a more human touch. With decades of academic, factual, and task-driven learning, it is imperative for humans to embrace their true nature. This keynote will delve into the essential adaptive attitudes required for individuals in the workforce to establish a harmonious connection with machines and people, and to thrive in an intensely technological work environment.

“By understanding and embracing these adaptive attitudes, you can feel prepared and confident in the face of technological change.”

We will discuss how these new attitudes will:

1. Foster a greater sense of humanity and propel organizations to prioritize the human factor, making them more powerful.
2. Discover ways to develop attitudes such as curiosity, empathy, imagination, kindness, and many more to bring equilibrium into the organization.
3. Developing and inspiring the human factor in the organization is no longer a nice-to-have; it will create units that support each other and move in the same direction.

KEYNOTE TALK 3

FIND PURPOSE VIA THE TRANSFORMATION CYCLE

Best audience: wellness and wellbeing

“Life and personal growth are always changing.”

Life and personal growth are always changing. In a VUCA (volatile, uncertain, complex, ambiguous) world, we need to keep moving forward. Each of us is here to grow physically and emotionally. We can't stop it - we all mature; it's part of our DNA. Humans are built to grow and protect themselves from outside harm, which makes change and growth difficult. The world around us pushes us to keep moving, just like the earth. Finding purpose is the meaning of life, and it can be hard with so many outside voices. This powerful keynote will share three simple steps to stay on track and discover our purpose.

The keynote will focus on the following:

1. Learn and master the three steps for maximum impact.
2. Identify the necessary self-reflection to pave the way for a fulfilling professional life and align it with your personal life.
3. Utilize tips and methods to introspect and self-coach your transformation while integrating your dreams effectively.
